

What type of Superhero would you be?

Draw your character and around your drawing list the super powers you may have.

- You can choose an existing superhero or be creative and create your own.

In Action

Created by Sofia Delios

Today you are going to write a narrative or story....

The idea for your story is “In Action”

Your story may be about discovering you have super powers, saving the world or banning together for the greater good.

It could be about finding the solution to a problem or finding an opportunity to do something different, exciting, display heroism and preserve humanity.

Your story could be about how belonging in a community brings people in difficult situations to find courage, help or understanding.

Think about:

The characters and where they are.
The complication or problem to solve.
How the story will end.

Remember to:

Plan your writing, use paragraphs, write in sentences, choose your words carefully to capture your audience into your story, pay attention to your spelling and punctuation and check and edit your writing so it is clear
